JOURNAL-GAZETTE July 12, 1923

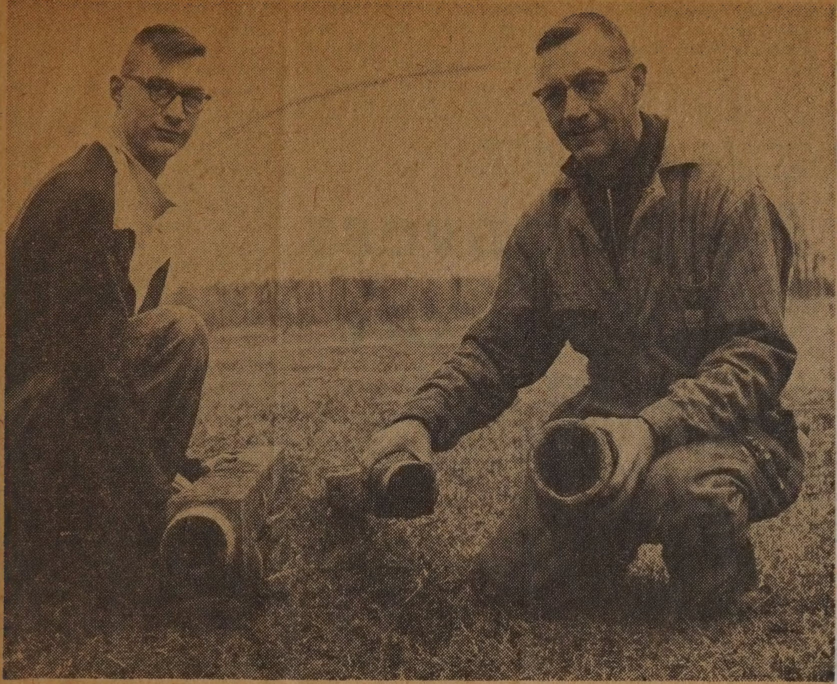
Roanoke, Indiana

George F. Snearly, 70, was found dead on the front porch of his home, 5 miles east of here, early this A.M. by a neighbor.

It is supposed that he died Wednesday. Coronor D.H. Benninghoff examined the body and pronounced death due to organic heart desease.

Surviving are 4 sisters: Mrs. Christina Linker, Mrs. Mary Stark, Mrs. Julia Dennis all of Fort Wayne and Mrs. Catherine Riser of Roanoke and one brother, John of Huntington.

Services at 10 O'Clock Saturday at the home of his daughter at Roanoke, and will be followed at 10:30 by services at Munson Chapel of the Methodist Church. Internmite at Nine Mile Cemetery. Rev. Emery of Roanoke will conduct the services.



PIONEER PLUMBING—David Woods, left, and his father, Virgil M., show sections of wooden pipe and a valve believed to have been in the shaft of an old well on their farm in Lafayette Township since 1850. The casings and valve are in a good state of preservation.

WE'VE MADE PROGRESS

Old Well Yields Pioneer Plumbing

Virgil M. Woods looked sharply down the shaft of an old well the other day and was amazed by the reflection of a century of progress.

Down the well was a wooden casing that had piped water to the surface for many a forgotten tiller of the soil in Section 15 of Lafayette Township.

The shaft is topped by a derelict windmill which rises like a sentinel within easy distance of Interstate 69.

Woods and a son David, a freshman at Purdue-Indiana Regional, made a noose of rope and extracted about 24 feet of wooden pipe from the old shaft, in two sections. Along with them came a wooden valve, still apparently serviceable.

These plumbing relics of another century are drying out in a loft of the Woods barn and will be permanently preserved, the owner said.

The discovery was due to a lowering water table in the area. Woods, a Pennsylvania Railroad telegrapher, bought the rural property of 40 acres last spring from William Martz. The old well shaft, over a half-mile from the present residence, attracted the new owner's attention early because of its construction; it is walled perfectly with jagged slabs of limestone which would offer murderous resistance to a falling body.

From research so far, Woods believes the hardwood casing was installed in the well about 1850.

During earlier inspections of the abandoned water supply, the level was high in the shaft, obscuring the old pipe; then it began receding and finally Woods was able to discern what appeared to be an obstruction. Using a slip-knot, Woods and his son snared the object and with surprising ease they drew forth the wooden casing.

"There is no way of estimating how much more of the casing remains in the well," Woods said. The service well at his home was drilled to a depth of about 120 feet.

During the life of the old well, two metal shafts were driven down into the rock, apparently without the discovery o fthe pioneer casing.

Woods plans no further exploration of the old shaft. The walls are secure, he believes, but the danger lies in a probable lack of oxygen, once deep in its confines. The bore is perfectly circular despite sharp irregularities of the stone.

Water will come to the surface of the shaft again, in season, Woods said, but he plans to close the well soon. Although an eighth of a mile to the nearest road, "it's too dangerous to be left open," he believes.

The casing was made from four-by-four timber with a boring of two inches or more through the center. This was the pipe that served the pioneer developers of the land.

Lafayette Township is home to Woods, and as a child he remembers a log cabin that stood near the well. A small weathered barn now stands nearby but there remains no trace of the cabin on the rich, black soil.

"A bachelor lived there — his name is lost to me because I was so young," Woods recalled. "One Friday he was observed stretching a wire fence. No one saw him on Saturday, and Sunday a neighbor called at the cabin. He was stretched out on the porch — dead.

"He had severed an artery in his arm while working with the fence and, help not being near, he died from loss of blood."

This land on R. R. 1, Roanoke, once was part of a land grant to the Wabash railroad, three miles to the north, during its development. Once the right-of-way was permanently established, the railroad sold off parcels.

To Woods the sections of wooden pipe are measuring sticks of the unbelievable progress that has been made in man's way of life during the last century.

Yet these crude utilities were made to last: the wood has held its shape and texture remarkably, and only one small fragment broke off during the removal.

The valve came away intact and has the contour of a small jug.

While the old plumbing is drying out, Woods will determine the best preservative to use; he is determined to save the piping for posterity.

During our present concern over the lack of sterile water, these artifacts reveal how hard it once was for man to slake his thirst.

RINGLING'S CIRCUS WILL BE IN HUNTINGTON AUG. 16

Huntington will have another circus this year. The next one that will visit the city will be the great Ringling Brothers show which will be here Thursday, August 15. Ringlings have the biggest circus now touring the country and it is claimed that the entire attraction will come here next month.

It is reported that the Ringling Brothers have purchased the complete outfit of the Forpaugh & Sells circus but that the latter is giving performances under its original name. It is stated that the circus to come here will positively be the original Ringling circus as it appeared in Ft. Wayne but a short time ago. Many Huntington people were present at the circus when it was in Ft. Wayne and speak in the best terms for the attraction.

BLOOD POISON STARTED BY THORN IN HAND

Mrs Eisenhauer who lives near Zanesville was brought to Dr. M. C. Clokey's office Wednesday to be treated for blood poisoning. Several days ago she pierced her hand in the palm with a thorn, a piece of which remained in the flesh. This she endeavored to remove with a pin which caused the poisoning.

The hand and arm was badly swollen. The operation was successful and the patient is recovering nicely.

Story of Former Thief Recalled by Disappearance of the Fowls.

Fifty nice young chickens were stolen from Henry Wagoner's chicken park near the Wabash railroad Wednesday night. The theft must have been made between midnight and 4:30 this morning as during those hours no one was awake in the Wagoner home.

The chickens were first discovered missing by Harry Wagoner who went to the chicken park before going to work.

It is quite a loss to Mr. Wagoner as he spent much time and labor in raising the chickens which were just in good condition for frying.

Besides the spring chickens, six

Took Daughter and Father is Left Without Companionship of Children.

"John, I'm never coming back to live in Huntington again, nor with you," was the purport of a letter written by Mrs. John Snearley to her husband, employed at the lime kilns as a laborer and living east of the fair grounds, after having left this city two weeks ago when she stated she intended to visit her brother, George Stone, in Lafayette.

The letter was the sudden revelation of the wife and mother's desire to break up the home and desert her husband and children after having been married for twenty-five years. There were three children in the family, a married daughter, Mrs. Tine Smith of Ft. Wayne, a son, sixteen years old, and a small daughter eleven years old. The woman, on her departure, took her little child and it now remains in her charge.

No immediate trouble was the cause of the desertion of the wife from the man who was of sober habits and a good workman but it is thought that the woman was prompted by a desire for more lavish dress which her husband could not afford and which she had recently been obtaining from other associations. No quarrels had taken place in the family and the husband was much shocked by receiving the sudden letter [illegible] deserting wife.

[illegible] ette a[illegible] e wrote to [illegible] husband. Wi[illegible] her daughter she le[illegible] this city two weeks ago and it was last week that Mr. Snearley received the letter. At the same time the woman's mother, Mrs. Sarah Stone, received a letter requesting her to pack and send the wife's belongings to Lafayette as that was to be the future location of the woman.

With the desertion of the mother, the young son, Charles, intends now to depart from this city and secure employment, leaving the father alone without his family. Until recently Mrs. Snearly had been of good conduct and was respected, but her associations grew questionable before her desertion. Mr. Snearley is undecided what to do in the future since he has no one to live with, but for the present will continue his employment at the lime kilns.

The Continental Limited No. 1 on the Wabash railroad had a remarkable escape from a disastrous wreck Wednesday afternoon, when speeding at the rate of fifty miles an hour, west-bound, it clashed into some track construction work near Cass station, east of Logansport. The engine was derailed and a combination baggage car and smoked and one day coach left the track. The passengers were badly shaken up and some of the women were overcome by the nervous shock, but none was seriously hurt. The only person badly injured was a train boy, Charles Shaffer of St. Louis, who was hurt in jumping.

"Dear John: I will never come back to live with you again.

"MARY."

Such was the startling information contained in a letter received two days ago by John Snearly from his wife at Lafayette. She had gone there to visit her brother two weeks ago. At the time of her leaving apparent peace reigned at the Snearly home. The letter received by the husband was positive in tone and when asked what he intended to do, Snearly said that he could do nothing.

Mrs. Snearly also wrote a letter to her mother, Mrs. Stone, and asked that some effects be shipped to her at Lafayette. It is understood that Mrs. Stone and the two Snearly children, aged sixteen and eleven, will go to Lafayette to live.

The Snearly home is at 206 East State street. Mr. Snearly is employed at the lime kilns and is so far as known an honest and industrious man. He is about fifty years old. In the family are three children, one daughter is married, a son, Charles, is sixteen years old and a daughter is eleven years old.

Snearly at first said he would keep house with his children, but it seems their grandmother, Mrs. Stone, has persuaded them to join their mother at Lafayette. It is said that this is the culmination of a long series of family quarrels at the Snearly home. Mrs. Snearly is said to be much younger than her husband and a handsome woman.

Brought to Hospital.

The Stults ambulance went to Union township this afternoon to bring Miss Pearl Lynn to the Huntington hospital. Miss Lynn has been staying at the John Cooper home. She had gone there on a visit when taken ill and her condition became serious. Dr. F. B. Morgan ordered her brought to the hospital that the case may receive medical attention. It is possible an operation may follow. Drs. Morgan and W. C. Chafee held a consultation at the Cooper home Wednesday and considered the move imperative. The young lady will be the first patient in the free ward at the hospital.

Henry Street Property Owners Take Appeal to Court.

An appeal from the assessment sheet on the Henry street sewer, as adopted by the Huntington council, has been taken to circuit court and the court has been asked to appoint viewers to consider the matter with a view to determining whether or not assessments have been made in a just manner. The title of the suit, filed in circuit court this morning by Spencer & Branyan, is E. T. Taylor, executor of the will of the late William Taylor, George A. F. Taylor, Agnes Taylor, Paul M. Taylor and Raymond Robinson vs. City of Huntington.

As executor of the estate of William Taylor, E. T. Taylor has right to make sale of or otherwise handle certain lands fronting on Henry street and taxed for the Henry street sewer. Agnes Taylor holds a life interest in the estate. Plaintiffs presented their objections to assessments before a council committee, the council refusing to make any change in assessments. An appeal is now taken to circuit court and it is alleged that the assessment of $1,196.34 against the lands of plaintiffs, out of $4,157.26 as the total cost of the sewer, is excessive. New appraisers are asked to view the land and make a written report to the court.

and others who had escaped but had relatives still entombed in theburning wreckage, was indeed touching. It created a memory in the minds of those around the wreck that can never be blotted out and is recalled with shudders when spoken of among those who passed through it.

As rapidly as possible a relief train was made up at Danville, Ill., and rushed to the wreck. The less injured had gone to work with an earnest purpose and succeeded in rescuing many who would have perished before the wrecking crew could have reached them. The injured were hurried to the Danville hospital. Many were given first-aid attention in an emergency hospital erected at the scene of the wreck.

Mrs. Hurdle relates the details of the horrible catastrophe in a vivid manner. In the same ward in the hospital, shortly after her arrival, the death of the little Shoemaker child occurred. The scene was bery pathetic. The experience is one which the lady never cares to pass through again. She will visit in this vicinity until the middle of next month.

BRINEMAN FAMILY TAKES THE PROPERTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beal today moved from the Mrs. Chenoweth property on South Jefferson street to the flats in the Mayne block, where they will make their home. The M. D. Brineman family has moved into the property vacated and will be in charge, conducting a rooming house. Mrs. Ed Rosebrough and daughter will break up housekeeping at their home on Etna avenue and will have a suite of three rooms at the Chenoweth property, which they will occupy Tuesday.

EDDINGFIELD BUYS A ROANOKE STORE.

On Saturday Lawrence Eddingfield of Pleasant Plain, in the southern part of the county, purchased the R. E. Ebersole grocery store and will take possession about October 15, says the Roanoke Review. Mr. Eddingfield has a large stock of goods at Pleasant Plain. He will close out as rapidly as possible until the middle of next month, when he will move the remaining stock to Roanoke and consolidate the two stores and will conduct a general mercantile business. Mr. Ebersole has been in business over eleven years and during that time has virtually made a $2,500 stock of goods, as he started with a very small stock which he purchased on credit. His only reason for retiring is on account of his health.

KELLY IN TROUBLE

Mrs. Snearly of Wabash Asks His Arrest.

SAYS HE TOOK HER RIG

Story Put Up by Woman Who Recently Deserted Family in This City.

"A woman by the name of Mrs. Snearly, living on West Hill street, near the intersection of Mill street, has asked the local police to assist her in finding Frank Kelly, who she claims has run away from her, taking with him her horse and buggy and also other articles belonging to her," says the Wabash Times-Star. "Where Kelly is as a mystery and no one knows, only Mrs. Snearly claims he skipped with her property and that she is now penniless as a result.

"Mrs. Snearly, it is said, recently came here from Huntington, where she left a husband, and took up a residence in the west end of the city. She claims that Kelly has been boarding with her and on Wednesday skipped out with her property, leaving her in poor circumstances. She claims to have recently purchased the outfit, the horse and rig, with money she got by selling her gold watch.

"Wednesday, shortly after dinner, Mrs. Snearly, as the report comes, aroused considerable pity for herself by going among the neighbors of that vicinity and telling the story of Kelly's disappearance with her property. She wanted them to join in the search to hunt him, but none seemed to take much interest and she then came to the police. She told her story and upon being asked if Kelly was her husband she stated that he was a boarder and had boarded with her for some time.

"Kelly is nowhere to be found in this vicinity and has not as yet been located. The officers state that Kelly's reputation is none the best and it is very probable that if he left with the outfit, as is claimed by the woman, he will not be seen for some time."

Several weeks ago the Herald mentioned the desertion by Mrs. Snearly of her husband and one child of 260 East State street, taking two children with her. The substance of a letter sent back by her was given in this paper at the time.

In a few minutes he died. For a number of years he resided in Roanoke and conducted a livery stable in the building now used by A. Wasmuth & Sons Co. as a planing mill. Funeral was held at Wesley chapel Monday at 11:30, Rev. C. M. Hobbs officiating. Burial was made in the cemetery nearby.

Mrs. Lavine Dead.

The death of Mrs. Boston Lavine occurred Thursday night shortly before midnight at the Lavine home, 37 East Sabine street, after an illness of several weeks with tuberculosis. Mrs. Lavine was twenty-five years of age April 18, last. She was the daughter of Baker Pickens. Other than the husband, the well known Erie machinist, two daughters, Edith and Vermuda, are left to mourn the loss of the wife and mother. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Apostolic Holiness church on Condit street. Rev. C. C. Beatty will officiate. Interment will be at Mt. Hope.

The remains will lie in state at the residence from this evening until the hour of the funeral. The casket will not be opened at the church.

Lucile Irene Miller.

Lucile Irene, the nine-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of 22 Taylor street, died this morning at 5:30. She was stricken a week ago with cholera infantum, which developed into spinal meningitis. The suffering of the child was pitiful up to the hour of her death, but human efforts could bring no relief. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon, leaving the residence at one o'clock for Lancaster, where interment will be made.

Death at Mahon.

Mrs. Ray Heath died at the home of her brother, George Luce of Mahon Saturday, September 22, of consumption, says the Roanoke Review. She was the wife of Ray Heath of Fort Wayne. Several weeks ago she was deserted by her husband and since that time had been stopping at the home of Henry D. Carpenter at Mahon. Saturday morning she was removed to the home of her brother, where she died in the evening. The funeral was held in Mahon Monday morning, Rev. C. M. Hobbs officiating. Burial in the cemetery south of Roanoke.

Lahr Funeral Pall Bearers.

Pall bearers for the Ulrich Lahr funeral Saturday morning will be David Shoemaker, Gottlieb Weiss, John Nie, sr., Jacob Bechstein, George Pastor, Alfred Stuver, Ed Stuver and George Kreig. Services will be held at the Reformed church at 10:30, Rev. A. C. Pretzer officiating.

Tillman Funeral.

The funeral of Benjamin Tillman will be held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

MARY M. HOAR.

Mary M. Snerly was born in Wurtenburg, Germany, Feb. 24, 1839 and departed this life Nov. 10, 1909 at her home two miles west of Union church in Sharon township, this county, where she and her 17 year old grand son, Maurice Mammon, whom she had reared from infancy, resided. She had been seriously affected with heart trouble for two years so her death came as no surprise. The funeral took place at Union church at 10 o'clock Nov. 12, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Geo. Edwards, of Hagarstown, and the burial was at Williams cemetery. She was converted and united with the Methodist church at an early age and has since lived a pure christian life. She had requested that the 7th and 8th verses 4th chap. 2 Timothy be used as her funeral text, applying these words to her own life: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only but unto all them also that love his appearing."

Deceased was eldest child of Geo. F. and Mary M. Snerly and came with them to America when she was about 1 year old. Her parents settled in Portage county, Ohio, later moving to Allen county, Ind., where she was married to John Thoman in 1856. They moved to Fayette county, Ill. in 1863 where she resided up to the time of her death. Nine children were born to this union, three of whom, Sarah M., Susie and Josephine, also her husband, preceding her to the better world. The surviving children are Mary B. Kirk, of Coffeen, Ill., Ella Whittle, Middletown, Ohio, Emma Casey, Bond Co., Ill., D. S. Thoman, Vera, Ill., J. E., of East St. Louis, and Chas. G., who resides on the old homestead. There are a large number of grand children. All the children were in attendance at the funeral except Mrs. Whittle, who was unable to be present on account of illness in her own family.

Deceased was married in 1885 to Wm. Hoar who also preceded her in death. Two sisters and two brothers survive her. Sarah A. Mohr, Van Wert, Ohio, Susie B. Holley, Roann, Indiana, J. E. Snerly, Roann, Indiana and G. F. Snerly of this city. All were in attendance at the funeral.

Vandalia Union, Nov. 11, 1909
Vandalia, Fayette Co., Illinois

Ohio. He had had the child since she was two years old, and she was then 14. Wm. Kistler and S. E. Rode signed his bond.

The court did not approve his report. Kistler then hired E. M. Ashcraft as his attorney and appealed the case to the circuit court. Kistler said that he had paid for everything, including medical treatment and did not intend to charge. There was a paper giving the charges for keeping her for the last twelve years, which the court accepted. Kistler had received no money for the child's property.

Pack 2. SPURGEON, Geo. W. d 1 Apr., 1877, testate. Will was made 6 Nov., 1876. It provided (1) The body was to be buried with Masonic honors in the orchard on the NE1/4 of SW1/4 of Sec. 35, Twp. 9 N, R 3 E (Loudon). All funeral expenses were to be paid. (2) His just debts were to be paid. Executors were to sell off as much personal property as needed, leaving enough for his executors to run the farms. They might sell 40 acres of land in Sec. 3 of Twp. 8 N and 40 acres in Sec. 29 of Twp. 9 N. If that did not pay out, the executors were to assume the debt. (3) Each daughter was to have $5.00 within five years after his death. They were Lunette Man, Sarah Scheiter (also written Schneider) and Hannah M. Spurgeon. (4) Lands were to be divided among his three sons, George R., William U. G., and Isaac M. Spurgeon(written Sprugin). (4) George R. Spurgin was to be executor of the estate. Witnesses were Daniel Buzzard and James V. Mullins.

The widow Susanna renounced the will. She was entitled to 1/3 of the personal property and the homestead, in Section 3, rights to $1,000. Commissioners to assign the lands was made up of George B. Much, Henry Miller, and Daniel Buzzard. Daniel Buzzard and James V. Mullins were on the executor's bond. Appraisers were Daniel Buzzard, Henry Miller, and James V. Mullins. There was a document which gave the ages of the heirs. It was not dated. Lunetta Evans 25, Geo. R. Spurgin 25, Sarah Schneider 20, Hannah Spurgeon 18, Wm. U. S. Spurgeon 9, and Isaac M. 7.

In the petition to sell real estate Lunetta was now named Evans and was at Watertown, Wis. The first husband was Engelhard Mana. Sarah and Theophilus Schneider were in Effingham Co, the rest in Fayette. There were several notes to Spurgeon and several he had given. In 1876 one was dated White Oak Point, another in 1872 was dated Greenland. One in 1874 was dated Holliday Station.

Geo. R. Muck was clerk of the sale, but the name of the crier was illegible. Those who bought besides the ones named above were T. McNeely, J. W. Camp, Bazel Tucker, Joseph Sutton, John Wels, Henry Carpenter, Henry Miller, Samuel Lance, Raphael Logue, Henry Phillips, Wm. H. Anderson, Louis T. Riley, Matilda Wright, Paul Warner, Daniel Harris, Clinton Little, and John Jackson.

Pack 3. TOHMAN (THOMAN) John. d 4 May, 1879, testate. The widow signed the name Thoman, but it was written Tohman all the way through. The will was made 29 Apr., 1879, left everything to his wife during her lifetime then to his children: Mary Williams, David S. Thoman, Sarah E. Thoman, Emma S. Thoman, John E. Thoman, George C. C. Thoman, and Lucy Ann Josephine Thoman. The widow was to be the executor. Witnesses were Jos. Henderson, John King, and John N. Cheney, who swore to his death. G. F. Snerly and J. W. Snerly signed the executor's bond. Appraisers were W. L. Billings, John M. Williams and John N. Cheney. There was a bill from Fred Emmel for $23.00 for the coffin and burial robe.

Pack 4. WHITTINGTON, Benj. R., Guardianship of minor children. The children were Sarah E. Whittington aged 15 on 2 Aug., 1874, and Rachel R. Whittington, who was aged 13 years on 15 Jan, 1875. The children were entitled to a pension from the U. S. from their father who had died in the service of the U. S. The mother then Mary Landers asked that Elisha Blankenship be made guardian. John T. Sturgeon and Moses Luster were on his bond. There was one document in 1881 which showed Elisha Blankenship as the guardian of Rachel only. Sarah E. was then of age.

Dear Lorna,

It was really so good to talk with you yesterday about our common ancestors George Fredrick Snerley and Mary Magdelena Volz! To have connected with you through a letter you had written to Wallace Smith back in 1977 was quite a stroke of good fortune!

I wanted to send you a few things that I have. I am enclosing copies of pictures for Mary Magdelene Volz Snearley, Mary Magdelene Snearley Thoman (2), and Sarah Ellen (Ella) Thoman Whittle. Ella is my greatgrandmother, Mary Thoman my greatgreat grandmother and Mary Snearley my greatgreatgreatgrandmother so I really treasure these photos! I am also sending a copy of Mary Magdelene Snearley Thoman Hoar (John Thoman died in 1879 and she married a William Hoar). She is buried beside John and a daughter in a small cemetery in Fayette County, Illinois which I hope to visit this summer.

I am also sending a descendant report beginning with George Fredrick Snearley and Mary Magdelene Volz. When you get a chance, please look this over and if you know of any errors I would REALLY appreciate you letting me know. As I mentioned on the phone yesterday, I believe I have Mary Magdelene Volz's mother's ancestry back to the 1500's.

Hoping to meet with you the next time we are in Ft. Wayne and would be happy to share any info, pics and articles that I have. I would also love to look at what you have collected over the years regarding our ancestors.

Again, it was so nice talking with you and hoping to see you soon. Please feel free to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,
Linda Roberts
